Award-Winning Fashion Boutique Native Sun to Open Pop-Up Shop in Newburyport

NEWBURYPORT, MASSACHUSETTS (August 2020) – Native Sun, an award-winning women’s fashion boutique, will open a pop-up shop in Newburyport at 20 Pleasant Street on August 13th. Native Sun first opened in Newburyport in 1989 and was a popular fashion destination for over 21 years.

The winner of multiple fashion designations including Best of Boston 2004, Native Sun returns to Newburyport under the leadership of founder John Darke and his wife Lisa. The boutique will feature a wide selection of contemporary women’s wear from top designers including Michael Stars, Splendid, Free People, Nicole Miller and Margaret O’Leary, among others. Shoppers will find a wide selection of denim, tee shirts, accessories, and gift items.

Native Sun is part of New England Development’s Pop-Up and Specialty Leasing program that provides shoppers with innovative shopping and dining options, as well as unique experiences, while also creating business opportunities for local and national entrepreneurs.

“We are delighted to welcome Native Sun back to Newburyport,” says Rebekah Macchia, Marketing Director of Newburyport Development. “Area shoppers and visitors are eagerly awaiting their reopening,” she adds.
